Shuttle Services for the Workshop

The Hilton Hotel does provide a shuttle service for guests at no cost (just "gratuity"). The shuttle would need to be scheduled so they would know when the person or persons would need to be taken over and picked-up.

The Clarion does provide a shuttle service for guests at no charge. The shuttle is by appointment, first come first served, and trips to the Airport take precedence above all other requests.

The Wyndham only has shuttle service for the downtown Toledo area. They do not come to the university campus.

Lodging Information

The University of Toledo has made arrangements with three hotels for providing IWARI2005 participants with lodging during the workshop: the Clairion Hotel (located just off I-475 at Secor Rd. nearby the UT campus), the Hilton Hotel (on the campus of the Medical College of Ohio), and the Wyndham Hotel (in downtown Toledo).

Whether you choose the the Clarion Hotel near the UT campus, the Hilton Hotel on the campus of the Medical College of Ohio, or the Wyndham in beautiful downtown Toledo, please be sure and mention you are here for a University of Toledo – College of Engineering event, in order to get a hotel discount rate for the workshop. You will automatically be given the special University of Toledo rate.

Hilton Toledo Hotel

The hotel was added to the campus in 1988 and has since become one of Toledo's most consistently high rated hotels. Planned in conjunction with the conference center, the staff of both facilities keep customer service a top-most priority. Whether you are planning a small or large meeting, a key contact person is assigned to assist your every need. One contract, one contact, one billing - coordinated for your convenience. For additional information or to make reservations online, visit the Hilton Toledo web site.

Guest Rooms

The six story guest room tower houses 213 deluxe guest rooms, including two luxury suites, several parlors, and accommodations for persons with disabilities. A large percentage of non-smoking rooms reflects the customer desire for these clean air spaces. Each room is equipped with a spacious desk, dual line phone to permit modem use, a 25" television for entertainment enjoyment, coffee maker and other first-class features. The guest tower is also set apart from other activities to promote a more quiet setting.

Ballroom & Meeting Spaces

In addition to the conference center, the hotel has a multi-section ballroom and other meeting spaces which expand the possibility for creative use of space during meetings. Outdoor patio space near the indoor pool and near the prefunction area provide additional areas that can be considered for events.

Dining

Iris Restaurant is an intimate space with exciting menu selections from appetizers to dessert. Whispers lounge provides a more informal setting for light refreshment or cordial congeniality. A full menu room service is also available during extended hours. Finally the Gift Shop offers some fine selections of snacks as well as that quick "bagel and coffee" to go.
